Close, Hayes split Boiler commission

By MEL HODELL

In an exhausting attempt to find out what's what with the Chaffey Union High School District's confusing insurance matters I came up with this summary and these new and interesting statements:

1. The Board on Mar. 7 voted 4 to 0 to "renew" a Boiler and Machinery insurance policy which never should have been presented for approval because the 5-year policy expires July 1, 1969.

2. This Boiler and Machinery policy is in the amount of $1 million with annual premiums of $1636 paid by the district to Wendell Close Insurance Co. of Ontario. Close then splits the "commission" 50-50 with Harold Hayes of Insurance Service Associates of Ontario and has since 1961, though the policy has been placed with Close only since a consolidation of policies in 1961.

3. Draper-Walton Insurance Co. of Upland has the district's Money and Securities and the Employees Honesty policies, and not Empire Co. of Upland as reported to this newspaper by Trustee Paul Cushing after the Mar. 7 meeting.

4. Bids on the Boiler and Machinery insurance policy were not sought (not because of its expiration in 1969 which was unknown at the Mar. 7 meeting) but because it would cost somewhere around $1000 for a new survey of equipment, thus cutting any savings by bidding, and because a new company would not issue the insurance because of the "poor condition" of the old boilers which would not pass current installation standards, even though "not dangerous and passed by the State Fire Marshall" according to Mr. Cushing.

The Chaffey Union High School District has these basic insurance policies now in force, according to J. Milo Thomas, Business Manager:

A. Fire insurance for several million dollars, annual premium of $13,042 this past year, placed with Pittinger-Alair of Ontario without bid, a 5-year policy expiring in 1971 with premiums totaling in five years more than $70,000.

Gene Alair is the "Broker of Record" and now gets the insurance automatically as his commission.

B. Boiler and Machinery policy with Wendell Close Insurance of Ontario, annual premium of $1636, a 5-year policy expiring July 1, 1969, in the amount of $1 million, without bids asked in 1964.

C. Comprehensive liability policy placed with Empire Co. of Upland with annual premiums of $9720, expiring July 1, 1967.

April 18 unification opposed

Ontario-Montclair Board takes unanimous stand

Unification of all the Chaffey Union High School District as proposed in the April 18 election is opposed by the Board of Trustees of Ontario-Montclair School District.

Unanimously the trustees voted for a motion that read, "The Board opposes unification of the total Chaffey Union High School District as presently proposed."

The proposal is the same as the one defeated by the voters April 20, 1965.

Mrs. Mary Stern took the lead in opposition to the unification proposal that would lump nine elementary and Chaffey Union High Districts into one big district.

"I see no benefit from the taxpayers' standpoint," Mrs. Stern said.

She gave three reasons for her stand, possible change in the unification law by the legislature, no improvement in the caliber of education in the O-M district and no financial benefit to the district, only loss of state aid and no major financial returns.

One protest was voiced by Mrs. Alice Wiley to the second point, educational improvement. She said she could not subscribe wholeheartedly to that because she felt there would be some educational advantage.

The simple resolution opposing the "total concept" of unification passed unanimously.

Unification as such is not opposed, Trustee Richard H. (Ric) Pearson pointed out, but the "large, unwieldly" district is objectionable.

Two years ago the board was split and as a group remained silent on the issue of unification, some for, some against the ballot.

This year the proposal is the same as in 1965. Some financial details have changed, but the 10-district welding into one with 35,000 students as of today remains the same.

Carol Locke wins Journey to Mexico

Carol Locke, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Logan Locke, 338 Merrimac Court, Upland, and a senior at Upland High School, has been awarded a five-week "Journey in Mexico" next summer.

Representing Region XII (California, Arizona, Nevada, Hawaii) of the Girl Scouts of the USA, she will join thirty-one other Girl Scouts from all over the United States and two adult chaperones in an experimental tour of Mexico.

The purpose of the trip is to find ways that a troop-sized group of Senior Girl Scouts tional experience without attending specific Girl Scout events and without living in Girl Scout homes.

Paid for by the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund, this project begins on June 25 in Houston, Texas, with the tour in Mexico ending the first part of August.

The girls will spend a week at Our Cabana in Cuernavaca, one of three international meeting centers for Girl Scouts.

The following four weeks will be spent sight-seeing in Mexico City, Guanajuato, Guadalajara, Merida, Oaxaca, and other points of interest en route.

Carol was awarded the trip following her selection as the first alternate from Region XII to go to Europe next summer for two months under the joint auspices of the Girl Scouts of the USA and the Experiment in International Living.

In her tenth year of Scouting, Carol is a member of Troop #1080 in Ontario; her leader is Mrs. George Brewitz.

This is the first time that the Spanish Trails Girl Scout Council has had a girl selected for an international opportunity.

15 students suspended for food fights, fires

Food fights, fires set in the cafeteria and in lockers, and general unruliness during Backwards Week on Mar. 10 at Upland High School has resulted in the suspension of at least 15 students.

Principal Thomas Glasheen said Monday that the student personnel service was reviewing individual cases as to the severity of the suspensions, and that continuing investiagation probably would result in additional suspensions.

On Friday, the fith day of Backward's Week, the two noon luncheon periods were combined.

Mr. Glasheen said that an organized group of about 50 students in the cafeteria simultaneously threw food all over the cafeteria, with a diversionary timing tactic conducted outside. All the students rose at one time, and it was all over at once, he said.

However 7 or 8 "tire hot patches" were placed on the cafeteria floor and ignited, leaving scorched spots, causing bad smells and smoke from the burning rubber.

Two fires were started in lockers, with the contents destroyed, and about six lockers and contents begin damaged from the fire and smoke.

Mr. Glasheen was unable to estimate the damage to property, including loss of revenue from the cafeteria sales. There were no personal injuries, though some students' clothes were smeared.

After the luncheon hour, it was planned to have a rally at the football stadium, and many students went there, but they were told to report in three minutes to their classes and almost all did, Mr. Glasheen said.

Out of a campus of some 2150 students, he said not more than 50 to 100 participated, with a "bulk" of spectators being involved.

A Backward's dance Friday night was quiet without special event, and Mr. Glasheen said Monday was quiet, aided by the rain.

The UHS principal said that athletic events would not be cancelled as was rumored, though he was concerned that some athletes were involved.

He also indicated that the week-long build-up of events during Backward's Week, with wild costumes and different events, was probably to be "examined" in a "soul-searching" effort to determine the amount of time and attention to be devoted to the activity.

He indicated there appeared to be a certain amount of "environmental distraction" which disturbed the educational process, and that an examination would come about before next year.

Dog Club sponsoring obedience classes at Memorial Park

The Motoc Dog Club of Upland will sponsor a novice obedience class for dogs at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Mar. 21 in Upland Memorial Park.

The class will be taught by Ray McGinnis who is a professional handler and has taught obedience to more than 2,000 dogs in Upland and Cucamonga during the past 16 years.

The Motoc Dog Club feels that every dog, purebred or not, that has been obedience trained becomes a much more valued and appreciated pet, and a dog with which you can have more fun.

Motoc trained dogs have joined with dogs from other dog clubs to put on special shows at the Riverside County Fair, Los Angeles County Fair and just recently the Orange Show in San Bernardino.

For more particulars about the class, call 982-7677 or come to Memorial Park Tennis Court Area Mar. 21.

Unsightly poles, wires disappear

Down they go!

Unsightly poles in the parkway of Euclid Avenue are "going underground" from the Freeway to Arrow Highway.

The Southern California Edison Co. completed the underground wiring problem last week, with the poles going down this week.

Especially since the trees were replaced several years ago in the parkway from the Freeway to Foothill Blvd., the city Council has urged underground wiring.

After a long wait, with much planning and expense on the part of the Edison Co., the poles are going down at last.

A major reason for the underground wiring is general esthetics, and around the new Civic Center site as an added reason.

Assemblyman 'report' set

Assemblyman John P. Quimby (D-Rialto) announced that he will hold his second "Sacramento Report" at the steel workers hall, 9460 Sierra Ave. in Fontana, at 7:30 p.m., Friday, Mar. 17.

The public is invited.

Mr. Quimby said that he will discuss current happenings in Sacramento in regard to proposed legislation. At the conclusion of his formal report, he will answer questions from the floor.

Light refreshments will be served following the program.

Sewage blockage brings investigation of system

A recent incident of sewage back-flow in Upland has prompted a thorough investigation of the city's sewage system, according to Doc Whitfield, sanitation supervisor.

The investigation stems from the Sunday, Feb. 26, flooding of a private home at 1595 N. Second Ave., where damage resulted when three inches of sewage, entered the home via the toilets, and caused a claim nearing $1000 to be filed against the city.

The homeowner notified the Fire Department, which responded with pumping equipment. Members of the Fire Department in turn notified the Sanitation Department, when they discovered that the problem involved an apparent blockage in the 8 inch main sewer line on 2nd Ave.

The following Monday, Feb. 27, Whitefield's department double-checked the point of blockage and determined that the 8-inch lines were free. In using a sewer rodder to probe the main lines, the sanitation department men dislodged some large chunks of solidified material, which when analyzed by the firm of Edward S. Babcock and Sons, Riverside, were found to consist of "mainly household grease mixed with detergent."

Whitefield, disclosed that there has been trouble before with sewage system in areas where garbage disposals were numerous, and urged area residents to use caution when disposing of household fats and grease.

He said these materials when mixed in the lines with detergents bind together and form a "cement like" substance.

THAT'S NO RED HERRING Doc Whitfield, sanitation supervisor is holding above, but rather one of the two and three-foot "chunks" of the cement-like substance removed from the sewer lines at Second Ave. and 16 St., which when analyzed was found to consist of "mainly cooking fats and detergent." Whitfield keeps his prize catch tightly wrapped to avoid asphyxiation.

Quick results come from classified ad for poodle

Quick results from a classified ad in the News-Tribune has made William Walsh, 609 Raymond, Upland, a satisfied user of this easy way to solve your problems.

He had a poodle pup for sale and got "quick results" with eight telephone calls the day the ad appeared. He sold the dog from the first telephone caller's response.

Mr. Walsh had placed the ad for two times, but had to cancel the second week's insertion because of the good results.

You can get such results, too, by calling 982-1385 or 624-8815 and putting a classified ad in the News-Tribune this week.

San Antonio Water Co. meeting peaceful

In sharp contrast to years past, the annual meeting Mar. 13 of the San Antonio Water Co. was a tame affair.

The Board of Directors all were re-elected unanimously without the slightest suggestion by anyone to replace any member, the financial picture was described as brighter by a $100,000 change in profit on the good side, the land company formation was well in hand, and nobody bugged anybody beyond a few interested shareholders seeking information.

Re-elected were Peter J. Weiland, Frederic W. Dundas, Lonnie Blanton, James L. Christensen, Theodore Davis, William Kistinger, and Harold S. Stewart.

The City of Upland, with 1814 shares owned out of the total 6389, didn't press for a second member on the Board as it has in past years, and Mayor Christensen made motions and seconds in jovial fashion in a new spirit not seen in SA Water affairs for several years.

One of the brighter aspects of the meeting was the auditor's report that sales were up by $26,000 and that pumping expenses had dropped $36,000 from the prior year, and repairs had dropped by $10,000.

Despite no land sales, which meant a loss of $36,000 income in 1966, the auditor said the net revenue was up by $13,000 and operating expenses down by $91,000, making a tidy $104,000 change for the better.

He also reported that the State franchise tax problem has been settled quite well for $1700 plus $500 interest for the years 1960-61-62 when the state was trying to collect a total of $27,000 plus 6% interest for these years.

He also reported that water rates were raised from 50 to 75¢ a day inch and the assessments were increased from $10 to $12 a year. This came about because of transfer of the revenue lands, or gravel pits, to the land company.

The land company became effective Jan. 3 with 25,556 shares, on a 4 to 1 basis with water shares. The land transferred has a value of $1,400,000, he said, with this 1966 balance sheet still consolidated.

Charles Thomas, water company manager, indicated that the same directors would run the land company until the first annual meeting next March, but that no policy had been established as to land disposition.

He said the vital, saleable land, about 300 acres, was left in the water company, that at Foothill and at 16th, for example. But the land company had property possibly less saleable, which was under flood control, rock leases, or forestry control.

He did report that 320 acres of land were sold to the forestry division, and is in escrow at the present time. SA Water Co. holds the water rights, but the land was sold for $38,400, and drains into the San Gabriel valley area.

President Pete Weiland said the water company was in good shape, that the area was excellently situated for water which was "the best in Southern California," and that the cost was one fourth to one fifth that of Feather River water. "Our water position is good," he said.

He defended the gravel pits by noting that in the past two heavy rains they were filled with water.

Mr. Weiland discussed two points that he saw as being of concern to San Antonio Water Co.

One was the road to Mt. Baldy which Los Angeles County and the Water Co. had agreed upon. He said the company had been paying taxes all during the years, and that LA had dumped dirt down embankments causing creek problems. He said the matter was being negotiated.

He also discussed the Chino Basin Water Conservation District, outlining its position as being only a part of the total Chino Basin district, that it might merge or add more area to it.

He said the SA Water Company, and other agencies were conserving water adequately, and said "frankly, I can't figure where adding will bring any benefit except to pay more taxes."

He said the SA Water Co. now was paying $60,000 in taxes compared to $15,000 a year ago.

When questioned later in the meeting by Ontario Councilman Walter Stewart, Mr. Weiland said his views were not that of the SA Water Company, but his own individual views.

Mr. Weiland then referred to the "$300,000 in cash" in the Water Conservation district and the "$381,000 more in taxes" to be collected this year.

"What use, no one has designated for this money, there are no plans," he said.

He said "We could consolidate and get results, now we are paying for a secretary and for an office and nothing is going on."

Mr. Stewart suggested that a study might be made by San Antonio Water Co. of the matter, and Mr. Weiland agreed this would be a good idea.

Upland licks Claremont 48-47

Knocking out Claremont in the first of two meets puts the Upland varsity swimming team in position to go all the way and win the title this year.

Upland licked Claremont by a single point, 48 to 47, in a meet that went right down to the final relay that brought in seven big points and victory.

To turn the trick in, however, Upland swimmers had to break four existing school records.

A year ago Upland's season was considered a big success with an unexpected eeked-out victory over Claremont that also went right down to the final relay.

Upland varsity swimmers trailed 47 to 41 before the fateful final relay. The next Claremont meet is on April 5.

The B swimmers also went into the final relay, trailing 37 to 35, but couldn't come up with the final relay win, and lost to Claremont 44 to 35. In their opening relay both teams were disqualified.

Walter Wood captures State Bowling Award

WALTER WOOD

Walter Wood of 2550 Euclid Crescent, East, Upland has recently taken part in and been named winner of a state-wide Rotarian bowling tournament in which he averaged 181 for six games.

The "once a week" bowler has been knocking the pins down for the past 10 years, but it was only this past September of 1966 that Wood began bowling with the Service Club League of Upland Rotary.

Wood, who usually has a 164 average received two trophies Mar. 8 at the regular meeting of the Upland Rotary; one for The Outstanding Rotarian Bowler in the State; and the other for All Events with a 181 Average With Handicap.

Wood and Bob Walline, Bob Nolan, Harvey Stone and Bill Rugg formed the Upland team, coached by John Lloyd.

As a team the Upland men came in 9th when they competed with 75 other teams from the state and Stone and Wood, as a team in the doubles event, placed 10th in competition.

Approximately 1000 spectators saw the 375 Rotarians vie for the bowling titles.

Upland Museum opens on three afternoons

The Upland branch of the San Bernardino County Museum located at 525 W. 18th St. is now open from 1 to 4 p.m., Monday, Wednesdays and Saturdays, for the public's pleasure, according to Mrs. Beatrice S. Riggs, Upland realtor, and president of the Museum Association.

"The museum is staffed by volunteer members of the asscoeation, but additional volunteers and money are needed to complete this cultural project," said Mrs. Riggs.

Members of the Lanarcs Club of Upland High School are serving on Saturday afternoons, learning the how and why of a museum.

Mrs. Riggs said new items of interest are arriving for display at the museum every day, and urged anyone interested in a membership to send the required fee of $5 a year to her office.

The U. S. exported the production of 80 million acres, or $6.7 billion worth of agricultural products in fiscal 1966.

Per capita food consumption in the U. S. this year is averaging nearly one per cent more than in 1965 despite increases in retail food prices.

SOCIAL SECURITY

The Social Security Act was passed by Congress with the primary purpose of providing for individuals after their working years have been completed. At the present time nine out of ten people are covered by the Social Security law.

Most people today are aware of the fact that they are building toward retirement, but very few are cognizant that there is also a lump sum benefit payable to survivors regardless of age, if the deceased is covered. The lump sum payment is based upon the earnings of the individual, and ranges from a minimum of $132.00 to a maximum of $255.00. This is payable to the next of kin or to whoever takes care of the final arrangements even though no relationship exists.

In addition to the lump sum payment, a monthly check is paid to a widow regardless of her age when there are dependent children under 18 years of age. A widow without dependent children may receive benefits at age 60. Parents are also eligible in some cases. All claims must be submitted within two years from the date of death.

Seeing that these benefits are made available to those eligible is but one of the many services performed by your Funeral Director who can truly say, "We serve the living."

Smog testing show 50% loss in Citrus crop

Seventy-six trees living in solitary confinement are revealing the economic damage that smog is causing to the citrus industry in Southern California.

Scientists who've studied these trees for more than five years have found that Southern California smog can reduce a citrus tree's yield by as much as 50 per cent. Results of their continuing study also indicate that automobile-created smog contributes to a serious "June-drop" of fruit from young navel orange trees.

THE PURPOSE of the project, which began in 1960, is to determine how much economic damage is being caused to fruit-bearing citrus by pollutants in Southern California air.

Scientists governing the 76 individually greenhoused orange and lemon trees in three Upland-Cucamonga groves have been pampering a select number of them while the others have been subjected to varying degrees of neglect.

The privileged few have been breathing smog-free air every day of the year, some for several years. The other greenhouse-house-confined trees, representing the majority, have not been getting clean (activated carbon-filtered) air. Some have been compelled to breathe the same air available to humans in the area. Others have been supplied with air containing varying amounts of one or another of the several air pollutants common to the Southland's atmosphere.

FINAL RESULTS of the project will be used in setting up realistic standards of air-pollutant emissions so that industry, automobile owners and agriculture may establish rules with which they can live harmoniously.

The project is being conducted by the Statewide Air Pollution Research Center, University of California, Riverside. Dr. C.R. Thompson, UCR chemist with the center, is the project leader. Industry, agriculture, the University of California and local governmental bodies provide the financial support for the research project.

THIS PROJECT BEGAN at a time when California citrus growers were voicing a growing concern over the decreased yields, lowered tree vigor, and small size and poor quality of fruit of their groves.

Yields immediately prior to the beginning of the project indicated that there may have been a drop in production of as much as 20 to 25 per cent in mature orchards from 1945 to 1960 and that this problem was particularly severe in Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Riverside and Orange counties.

Greatest interest during the past six years of research has been focused upon the effects of automobile smog and fluoride on bearing citrus trees.

"THE ACTUAL NUMBER of harvest fruit in smoggy air," Dr. Thompson reports, "is often only one-half that in clean air when the number and weight of fruit are compared. Size of fruit doesn't seem to be affected, but numbers can be reduced to one-half."

Dr. Thompson and his researchers say their data indicate that trees which get ambient (smoggy) air occurring in the area use less water than the trees breathing only clean air. Dr. Thompson explains that this must mean the leaf area is reduced or transpiration is inhibited in the smog-exposed trees. He says that attempts to show less water loss from leaves getting smoggy air directly have been unsuccessful to date.

THE SCIENTISTS also have found that leaves in smoggy air seem to use less carbon dioxide than the trees that get clean air. This reduced apparent photosynthesis could mean a reduced rate of food formation within the tree and fewer reserves for fruit production and growth, according to Dr. Thompson.

of auto smog has been increased leaf drop. Project results show that trees exposed to ambient air lose leaves for a given age about one-third sooner than trees getting the clean air.

Attempts to evaluate the separate effects of auto smog components--ozone and peroxyacyl nitrates--have been unsuccessful. Dr. Thompson says that atmospheric fluoride, while present, is so low that it has no measurable effect on yield, carbon dioxide use, leaf drop or premature fruit drop. He adds that fluoride levels in the air have decreased significantly during the course of the research project.

"THE TESTS are continuing," Dr. Thompson reports, "and when all data are in they will be evaluated statistically, final conclusions will be drawn, and the results will be published in detail." Present plans are to continue the project into 1969.

Church invites community to sermon

The whole community is invited to attend services sponsored by the Upland Community Foursquare Church, 8th & Campus at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, March 22nd with the Rev. Vivian Twyford, pastor, officiating.

Christ In The Passover is a sermonic demonstration given to show how Christ fulfilled the typology inherent in the ancient feast.

The traditional items will be on the table, and the speaker, Mr. Emil Olsen of the American Board of Missions to the Jews, will don the costume of the Orthodox Jews and will explain the items and procedures of the Seder Feast which predates the Birth of Christ by 1500 years.

Special emphasis will be given to the redemptive significance of each item, and the meaning of the gestures of Christ at the "Last Supper" will be told.

The Unleavened Bread, Passover Wine, and the procedure relating the two shed much light on the meaning of Christian Communion, which will be served at the conclusion of the demonstration.

Much of what the Mission speaker has to say is from the standpoint of Jewish family training, which has been brought into focus by his theological training as a Christian minister.

Beside giving Christians insight into Jewish tradition it is hoped that this service will create understanding to help the Jewish people of our community to know more about Christ, and to help Christians to appreciate the Jewish heritage and alleviate any Anti-Jewish feelings.

The presentation will be directed by Myron L. Tweed, with Bradford Tozier serving as concertmaster of the orchestra.

The featured soloists will include:

PAULINE TWEED, soprano who has appeared as guest artist with the Elkhart Symphony Orchestra and has made frequent oratorio appearances in the Chicago area. She will be heard this spring as "Mimi" in the West End Opera production of Puccini's "La Boheme."

ARLENE SMITH, who recently moved to Upland from Pennsylvania with her husband Rev. Elbert Smith, Pastor of the Brethren in Christ Church, served as contralto soloist with the Granthem Oratorio Society. Every year, this choral organization presents major choral works at "The Forum" in Harrisburg, Pa.

JEAN BYER, contralto, has made numerous local appearances as oratorio soloist in Whittier, Ontario and Upland.

HARRIET BERT, contralto, and personnel chairman of the choir, is a soloist in the music program of the church.

Realty Boards hear 'time to buy' talk

Albert Dusebout from the Los Angeles office of Security Title Company was the featured speaker Mar. 1 at a combined meeting of the Upland-Ontario Board of Realtor's and the Pomona Board of Realtor's.

Dusebout talked to a group of 167 Realtors and guests about the period when tight money was news and many people were waiting for the situation to change before selling or buying. He said study of the change in the financial trend reveals that now is the time to buy. Any realization of a reduction in interest would be nullified by the inflation of prices in property.

Ken Hawes, president of the Upland-Ontario board announced to the group that the theme for 1967 is "Achievement in Education and Professionalization."

The education committee proposed that the Board adopt a policy to require all new members to successfully complete 2 college courses in real estate, legal aspects and real estate practice, or take and pass a test in lieu of the courses.

This recommendation and a program to raise the standards in the real estate profession is being studied by the board of directors.

du Berrier vietnam talk set

Mr. Hilaire du Berrier, a former Far East specialist for the American OSS, author, and world correspondent with 30 years experience in Asian affairs, centering on Vietnam, will address a public audience at 8 p.m. Monday, Mar. 20, at Westmont Community Center, 1800 W. 9th, Pomona.

His subject will be, "Vietnam - Why Not Win?"

Hilaire du Berrier is an American who says he knows Vietnam and since 1937 has been reporting on affairs from the Orient. His background is varied, covering piloting a courier plane between Hankow and Nanking, to accompanying the Vietnamese mission to the Big Four conference in Geneva in 1955.

In developing his subject, "Vietnam - Why Not Win?" du Berrier charges that, "either America will win the struggle in which we are involved in Southeast Asia or liberty will die there, and America will begin to reach the end of her road as a great power."

He further states, "that we can win the Vietnam War and bring our men home at the same time."

Mr. du Berrier is able to back up his statement, having just returned from eight weeks in Vietnam where he conferred at great length with his personal acquaintances of many years standing.

Foreign students host American friendships

Chaffey College's foreign students will host their American friends of the community at International Week, at noon Monday, Mar. 27 through Friday Mar. 31.

The people - to - people program will open with a presentation of 20 flags of as many countries and feature a 6 p.m. dinner on Mar. 31 with as many exotic dishes to choose from.

As each foreign student breaks out his national colors in the flag ceremony, the Chaffey band will strike up his national anthem.

The dinner on the final day will be followed by an international talent show at 8:30 p.m. in the little theater.

An international exhibit of displays representative of 25 countries will be open daily from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and continued on the last day until 8:30 p.m.

The week will end with Chaffey's 42 visa students appearing on campus in their national dress.

Coordinating the program is Tai Young Byun, Korea, Associated Student Body representative of Chaffey's foreign colony and International Relations Club chairman. Advisor for visa students is Wesley Harmon of the faculty.

"The reason for International Week is to create understanding between countries and to make Americans feel as welcome as they have made us feel," said Byun.

Choraleers will present church concert

The Choraleers, high school choir of the First Baptist Church of San Jose will present a concert at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Mar. 23, at Temple Baptist Church, 224 W. California St., Ontario.

The choral group, which represents 15 different high schools of San Jose, is on its sixth annual tour of the Pacific Coast States and the first tour to the southwest. They will offer a musicale of sacred anthems, inspirational songs, and spirituals. Included also are a trio, quartet, and a number of solo performances.

Guest accompanist this year for the Choraleers is Miss Pamela Pyle, a sophomore music student at San Jose State College. Miss Pyle, a member of First Baptist Church, also accompanied the Choraleers during her last three years in high school. She has performed with the San Jose Symphony Orchestra as well as in many other concerts.

School insurance policy 'renewal' is mistake

Bids being asked July 1 for the first time is history.

D. Auto comprehensive policy with Draper-Walton Insurance Co. of Upland, expiring July 1, 1967, with premium for 1966-67 totaling $2956. This policy and the "C" policy above are being combined July 1, 1967, and will be placed out for bid by Board action Mar. 7, as one policy.

E. Money and Securities policy for $5000, with Draper-Walton Insurance Co., premium of $723 annually, 3-year policy, automatically renewed Mar. 7 without bids. Placed here for years.

F. Public School System Employees Honesty blanket policy for $25,000, placed with Draper-Walton Insurance Co., premium totaling $763.52 for three years ending July 1, 1967, and automatically renewed for 3 years by the Board Mar. 7 without bids.

THE MISTAKE in presenting the Boiler and Machinery policy before the Board for "renewal" was not discovered until after the meeting according to Paul Cushing, Insurance Chairman. He said it was "an oversight" and the mistake of the business office. The Board voted 4 to 0, to "renew," with Trustee William Draper not voting.

Mr. Cushing said bids were not sought because of the condition of the old boilers. A new company would demand changes which would be costly. Cushing said the conditions of the boilers were not dangerous, and were passed by the State Fire Marshall, but that they would not meet current installation standards.

Wendell Close said that his company, Pacific Indemnity, was a specialty firm regarding boilers and was the "outstanding firm" in the field. He said their policy was a "good one," their charges were lowest and that the company was "noted" all over.

THE STRANGE SHARING of commissions by Wendell Close with Harold Hayes came about as follows according to the two brokers:

The School district had three policies with Pacific Indemnity through Wendell Close's firm in 1960, and one policy with Pacific Indemnity through Insurance Service Associates; Harold Hayes purchased ISA in 1960. Hayes dropped representing Pacific Indemnity in 1960.

In 1961 the policies were consolidated, and a three year combined policy issued effective July 1, 1961 to 1964. This was placed exclusively through Close, with Pacific Indemnity as the writing firm. But Close felt through "courtesy" to Hayes, that he would split the commission. Close did all the work, had the blanket policy, yet Hayes collected half the commission.

This policy was renewed without bidding for a five-year period from July 1, 1964 to July 1, 1969. Every year since 1964 Close has continued to pay Harold Hayes 50% of his commission, the same as before.

Both men say that the Chaffey Union High School Board knew of this splitting of commission, that the school district has had the advantage of one combined policy for all such insurance, and the premium has been at a minimum for the district, and has not cost the district a single extra cent.

Insurance Chairman Paul Cushing told me this week that "we still are trying to get away from this type of splitting business among insurance agents." But he said that if Close was "willing to go along" with splitting his commission that it was up to Close. When asked if this wasn't strange, he replied "If I were Close, I wouldn't be willing to go along with the arrangement."

He said his Insurance Committee (Cushing and Richard Allred) probably should "go into it all a bit more."

Both Hayes and Close said there was nothing illegal or unethical about splitting the commissions, that insurance brokers could share commissions as they saw fit.

Hayes said he never knows exactly what the commission is going to be until he gets a letter and a check from Close. He said he depends on the "integrity" of Close and never questioned the amount of money received.

Hayes said it originally came about through the same Company (Pacific) and with the School District's knowledge when Ed Hunt was the Business Manager, and with Board approval.

When asked how long this commission split would go on, and if "indefinitely," Hayes said "as long as Close has the ... ler policy and Pacific Indemnity has the policy," he thought.

Mr. Close said he has continued the split at no extra cost to the district, because it has "just gone on and on" and that he was being "more than fair." He also said there had been no objection to the splitting, and indicated he didn't want to "rock the boat."

Mr. Close also indicated the error in the Board's "renewing" of the policy that was not up for renewal. He said the annual bill for payment had not been presented, and would as soon as the annual inspection was made, including consideration of the construction of the Ontario high school.

Mr. Alair said he was named Broker of Record before 1964, but that he knew nothing of any problem with the boilers. He said Pacific Indemnity had their own inspector and there was "no reason" for him to suspect that anything was wrong with the boilers.

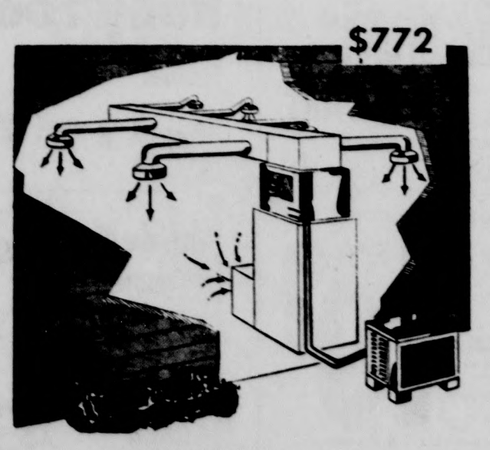

He also said it was none of his business if Close and Hayes split commissions, as Hayes might have had a contract with Pacific, and that both were generally known as the servicing agents since the consolidation of the various policies.

RESPONSES--Cong. Jerry Pettis (California, 33rd District) scans a few replies of the thousands that are pouring into his Washington, D.C. office in response to a "national issues" questionnaire sent our recently. Replies are being tabulated according to city or community and will determine legislative action by the Congressman. According to a staff member, the rate of response is two and half times above average. Results will be reported when survey replies are analyzed.

Questionaires mailed by Pettis on seven subjects

In an effort to accurately determine the views of West End residents concerning the issues to come before the 90th Congress, congressman Jerry L. Pettis of the 33rd district this week mailed questionnaires to all registered voters with the hope that they will be completed and returned to him so that he may serve his constituents capably and well.

Mr. Pettis is soliciting the voter's views on seven subjects and phrases each question in a simple manner to be answered by "yes" or "no" and he also assures the voter answers will be counted whether or not the questionnaire is signed. If signed, Pettis states that the answers will be kept confidential.

His first question is, "What should we do about Vietnam?" There are four possible suggestions namely: continue our present course; mount a strategically sound effort for military victory; hold key positions and try to negotiate a settlement; and withdraw as soon as possible.

Pettis' second question is, "What should be done about the Administration's projected nine billion dollar deficit?" His three listed alternatives are: adopt its recommended 6 percent surtax on personal and corporate income tax; eliminate unnecessary foreign aid and domestic spending; and impose Federal wage, price and credit controls.

The other five questions do not have alternatives but only require a straight "yes" or "no" reply.

They are as follows: question three, "Do you think the "War on Poverty" has been worth the cost?" question four, "Do you favor Secretary McNamara's proposal that all American youths be drafted for two years of Federal military or civilian service?"; question five, should the voting age be lowered to 18?"; question six, "Should a tax credit be allowed parents supporting students in college?"; and question seven, "Do you favor removing the ceiling on earnings of persons receiving social security or veterans pensions?"

Results of this poll will be reported by the office of Pettis in the near future.

Highway Patrol plans another five men for accident program

A total of 18 Highway Patrolmen recently have been added to the Pomona Highway Patrol office for service on the San Bernardino Freeway, and an additional five men will be added April 1, in connection with the department's "Operation 500" accident prevention program, Supervising Inspector H.G. Amborn, revealed this week.

The additional 18 men already added, plus the five to be added in April will bring the complement to 38 patrolmen covering the San Bernardino freeway out of the Pomona office.

The area to be covered is from the east city limits of West Covina to Archibald Ave., Cucamonga, including Montclair, Upland and Cucamonga.

During the month of January the Highway Patrol conducted inspection points throughout the West End communities on a temporary basis. Plans now have been completed to have the five additional men assigned in April to take charge of safety check points, the position of which, will change each day.

"The stepped-up enforcement on the freeway will continue for at least 14 months with the primary objective being to reduce the traffic accident frequency on these high accident stretches," said inspector Amborn.

He also said, "We are going to put forth our best effort to achieve our objectives of reduced accidents, more uniform flow of traffic at legal speed limits which will tend to shorten delays, and provide faster service to disabled motorists. We urge motorists to cooperate with us by paying constant attention to the traffic rules and regulations."

Amending school unification laws wins support of State Board

GETTING A "SNEAK PREVIEW" of the Puppet show and Clown, which is portrayed by Mrs. William Delzell, the children of the members of Gamma Alpha Iota, Chapter Beta Sigma Phi are entranced. These preparations are being made in anticipation of an Easter Party being given for a local Retarded Children's home, on Mar. 23.

Proposals to amend school district unification laws have won support in principle from the State Board of Education.

The Board acted on the recommendation of Associate State Supt. Ronald W. Cox, endorsed by Supt. Max Rafferty, that its position should be "to try to contrive some legislation that will produce some more district unifications."

COX OUTLINED, and the board adopted, four general recommendations for improving the present law:

1. The incentive payment from the state to a unified district should be doubled from the preseat $15 a year per pupil to $30.

2. The incentive payment should continue to be given to a district that voted for unification, even when the unification is defeated by the vote in other districts.

3. The present provision of law that existing high school districts may be divided only in "exceptional circumstances" should be changed to establish specific standards. Cox suggested that the law might require that each part of the split district must have at least 10,000 pupils and that there shall be no more than a 10 percent difference in assessed valuation per pupil between the parts.

4. The present requirement for repeated elections might be dropped if it were made easy to petition for unification elections.

THE BOARD PUT OFF for later discussion whether the Legislature should abolish the present provision for an area-wide property tax rate in districts that defeat unification elections under certain circumstances.

Only Dr. William J. McCandless, the newly appointed board member from El Cajon, opposed the board position.

He indicated during the discussion that his concern was over the inducement payments given districts for voting for unification, calling this "the so-called blackmail element of the Unruh law."

"THE GRASS ROOTS are strongly opposed to this," McCandless said.

Supt. Max Rafferty explained that the provision was intended to meet the almost inevitable increase in school costs that comes with unification. The new teacher salary schedule nearly always, he said, is set at the level of the district that has the highest salaries, "as it should be."

Rafferty suggested that to meet McCandless' objection the state might simply guarantee that it would take over any increased cost caused by unification.

But McCandless voted against the board's general endorsement of the superintendent's position anyway.

Artist to paint watercolor during Symphony meeting

Miss Vera Wise, Pomona artist, will bare the secrets of her talents at the West End Symphony League's "Coffee and Culture," to be held at 1 p.m. Friday, Mar. 31, at the first event in the new Euclid Avenue Chapter of the San Bernardino County Museum, 525 W. 18th St., Upland.

Attired in the traditional artist's smock, Miss Wise will paint a picture in one of her favorite media, water colors; explaining while she paints what she does and why she does it. The painting then will be raffled off, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Melvin Marks.

A graduate of Willamette University, Miss Wise studies at Chicago Academy of Fine Arts and graduate schools of University of Southern California and Colorado Fine Arts Center.

She was chairman of the University of Texas art department for 22 years.

Now retired, Miss Wise is active with the Pomona Valley Art Association and Chaffey Community Art Association.

Mrs. Robert Groendyke, Ontario, will also provide an on-the-spot demonstration of art at the potter's wheel, according to General Chairman Mrs. Sydney Shaner.

Taking charge of the coffee and exotic desserts prepared by Symphony League members are Mrs. Samuel Kobrinsky and Mrs. Lawrence Kartun. Mrs. Tada Sato and Mrs. Crawford Judge are supervising the ceramics and pottery displays prepared by students at Scripps and Chaffey Colleges. These works will also be on sale at the "Coffee and Culture."

A Members' Mart, to take the form of a silent auction, will be conducted concurrently with the art demonstrations, by Mrs. Barry Brandt and Mrs. David Barnfather.

Mrs. L.L. Young, Symphony League President, invites the public.

Look at high school insurance

HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT trustees last week approved by a 4 to 0 vote the renewal of two different insurance policies without bids being asked.

In the light of the publicity concerning handling of the insurance matters of the district, it appeared in February that finally bids would be sought on all insurance except fire insurance. However, at the last meeting, the high school district threw out bidding procedures on two different sets of insurance policies.

Even more incredible was the fact that the renewed policies were approved in open meeting without the Board even noting the names of the insurance companies being awarded the renewal. The amounts of the policies were not stated, nor were the premiums to be paid mentioned.

What this boils down to in plain black and white terms is that the chairman of the insurance committee, Paul Cushing, along with Richard Allred, the other member of the committee, either have such confidence by the other three members of the Board that Cushing and Allred don't have to even let them know what is going on--or the Board is operating behind the scenes in secret and deliberately keeping basic information from the public and press by not even bringing it up at the regular meeting.

Either way, this can be a serious indictment against the operation of the Board. Paul Cushing, who is running for re-election this year, has a good deal of explaining to do on the handling of insurance for the district. And so does Ben Allen, the President of the Board, who is a party to this appalling un-business-like operation of the Board.

What makes the whole thing really ridiculous is that one policy never should have been up for "renewal" at all; it still has until 1969 to go to its expiration date.

So the Board's 4 to 0 vote is nullified because of the error; but we consider our criticism of the Board's inept manner still valid. It's a great way to handle a school district's insurance.

AFTER THE LAST MEETING this newspaper had to ask Paul Cushing who the agents were who were receiving the renewal. His reply was Close Insurance Co. and Empire Co.

We printed these names, when in fact the Empire Co. was not a proper name, and that of Draper-Walton of Upland was the proper name.

We also asked Mr. Cushing about the amount of the premiums, and total amount of insurance. He didn't have the information at hand and didn't know.

Yet the Board had just passed on the "renewals" and still the Insurance Chairman couldn't even tell the press any of the information, facts that should have been presented as part of the motion to be approved.

It's positively incredible that the high school Board could act in this manner with the taxpayers funds!

THERE IS ONE BOARD MEMBER, William Draper, who has opposed the Board's handling of insurance without bids. More power to him; yet he is isolated against the other four, including Mrs. Mary Hecht who has voted along with Cushing, Allen and Allred.

Mrs. Hecht, who also is running for re-election, also needs to do some explaining as to why she has gone along with Cushing, Allred, and Allen.

THE TROUBLE all stems from the appointment of Gene Alair of Pittenger-Alair as the "Broker of Record" for the high school district in 1963.

He was hand-picked by Paul Cushing because Alair was Cushing's personal insurance representative for his business affairs and Cushing had liked the manner in which Alair had taken care of his personal insurance.

Pittinger-Alair was chosen without bidding and insurance matters handled in a manner that almost slipped through, and would have if Wendell Close, an insurance agent, and other agents had not shown up at a meeting last year to protest the lack of bidding. If this newspaper had not pressed the point and exposed the inept business practice it also would have slipped through.

The Broker of Record sets up all the insurance specifications for the district, and then AUTOMATICALLY is awarded ALL the fire insurance for the district. This is a whopping amount of dollars, in the millions, for this huge district, and amounts to a premium for Alair of more than $70,000 in five years through 1971.

This is rank, in our opinion, and Cushing and this newspaper are on opposite sides, you may be sure. He sees nothing wrong in the handling of the high school district's insurance; but we sure do.

What's more, we have faith in the people's judgment.

As of this writing we are not ready to suggest who is most capable of being elected April 18 to the high school district Board. The two incumbents, Paul Cushing and Mary Hecht, obviously have a big edge, but in the glare and smell of the insurance matter, we're not ready to bet any money on their re-election at this time despite their incumbency.

The campaign issues for the high school board involve the "one big district unification" as a major item which people vote on April 18, and we feel that handling of insurance surely deserves a top spot and more than a passing glance by the voters.

The question we have had asked us time and again, of course, is that "if the high school board acts like this about insurance, what about other services, and how is the Board really acting about many other items which may be hidden?" And that's a logical question, too.

Two letters from Red Cross officials

Red Cross appreciates news coverage accuracy

March 7, 1967

Mr. Mel Hodell, Publisher
The Upland News

Dear Mel:

Your news story of Wednesday Mar. 1 has just crossed my desk. May I thank you for presenting in great detail and accuracy "our side" of this affair. You and your news staff are to be congratulated for your objective presentations--and all of us are most appreciative.

I am particularly pleased since I am well aware of your editorial policy and personal concern in this area of Community size and the instrusion of the "Megalopis concept" on the individual of the community and its citizens.

As mentioned to you at our meeting, we of the Red Cross are also concerned--as local leadership is a "must" for our success.

A full report of this matter will be made to the Board of Directors of the Southern California Inland Chapter of the Red Cross at its next meeting on Tuesday, Mar. 21, 1967 at 6 p.m., San Bernardino Service Center, 670 Arrowhead. We would like you to be present at this meeting--or if this is not possible--perhaps a member of your news staff could come.

Again--thanks for a most fair and accurate picture of the position which we represented to you.

Sincerely,
John L. Doyle

Past President defends United Fund position

Mar. 11, 1967

Editor, Upland News:

Your editorial regarding the position of the Upland Red Cross Center, formerly the Upland Red Cross chapter, cast the United Fund as the Big, Bad Wolf.

I think it is important for those who are confronted with the annual United Fund appeal to realize that the West End United Fund is a protective agency for contributors as much as it is a collection organization for up to 30 member agencies.

One of the important functions of the United Fund is to carefully scrutinize the budget requests of every agency to determine if what they want to spend is essential.

I dare say that if your tax dollar were put to the same test as your United Fund charity dollar, your taxes would be reduced at least 25% and you would be getting twice the service for your money.

In arriving at an allocation for each agency, the United Fund has to determine not only the essential needs of the individual agency but their importance in relation to the services rendered by all the member agencies.

This year almost 20% of the United Fund dollar going to agencies was allocated to the local Red Cross organization. In addition, the United Fund included in its campaign a special Red Cross national emergency appeal which received $4,000, money the local Red Cross would have had to seek in a special campaign. Not only did the United Fund save the contributor from an unnecessary solicitation, but it saved the Red Cross quite a bit of effort, permitting this energy to be expended on other important Red Cross functions instead.

While the United Fund, through its constant scrutiny of agency activities, has long maintained that unification of the Upland and Ontario chapters would be more economical without seriously affecting service, it was the National Red Cross organization, not the United Fund, which dictated that the chapters be joined, not only to each other but into one countywide organization.

It was this one countywide organization that ended up submitting a budget request to the United Fund. How much of its funds is allotted to Upland for a service center is thus a matter between the Upland Red Cross organization and its county agency.

The United Fund has made a valiant effort to meet the increased needs of its member agencies this year, but unfortunately fell short of its bold goal, despite a record increase in contributions. Meeting the additional request of the Red Cross for funds would have made it necessary to penalize other agencies more, such as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, Salvation Army, YMCA, Upland Boys Club and others who serve the community.

On the other hand, to allow each of these agencies to conduct "supplementary drives" of out and out solicitation for additional funds, as some seek to do, would be to defeat the purpose of the United Fund and destroy the faith the contributors have in its "one drive for all" purpose.

I can appreciate your loyalty to a hometown agency you feel is getting a "raw deal" from both its own higher ups and the United Fund, but believe me, when this agency's needs are placed in context to the needs of its fellow agencies throughout the years, the Upland Red Cross has made out very well, and its share of the pie has no doubt been the envy of many of the others who have also served you well.

Tartan Tales from Upland High

By LINDA MURASKO

Due to circumstances beyond the control of the Girls' League and the Student Council, Backwards Week was climaxed by a dramatic failure.

Although some rumors were heard to the effect that various fights were to be held during the single lunch period Friday, it was hoped against hope that the Associated Student Body of Upland High School could and would accept the responsibility of additional privileges.

FIRST AND SECOND lunch periods were combined on the last day of Backwards Week, something that had never been tried before. The lunch hour was to last for about one hour instead of the usual half hour.

However, apparently the students went heady with the unaccustomed freedom and were not capable of keeping themselves under control.

FOOD FIGHTS were in progress on various parts of the campus, including the cafeteria, minutes after the lunch bell had rung. Fires were set in the cafeteria itself, at least a half-dozen lockers, trash cans, and in the trash bins.

VAST DAMAGE was done, not only to school property but to the students themselves. The lunch hour was cut short and students were told to report to their fifth period classes.

ALREADY INCITED by a few unruly big shots, a good number of students proceeded to the football stadium where activities were to have been held.

THE MOB WAS STOPPED by teachers who were posted at the football stadium where such shenanigans were anticipated.

Unfortunately, it took several warnings from Director of Student Activities Bill Wolfe and Principal Thomas Glasheen before students began to return to their classes. Those who still insisted on protesting were herded down to the Guidance Center and were either issued truant slips or were suspended.

IN VIEW of my own sense of justice this is indeed a small penalty. According to my book, and it is a well-known one, I am by brother's, or sister's, keeper.

I can only feel shame, regret, and indignation for those who were immature enough and selfish enough to ruin a well-planned week that had been enjoyable up to that time.

THOSE WHO participated infringed on my rights as a student. They have put me as well as many, many others in jeopardy. It will be me and those who had enough sense not to get involved who will be penalized for the rash actions of an irresponsible few.

OPEN LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

We wish to express our thanks for the concern shown by our newly elected Congressman Jerry Pettis from the 33rd district, when he sent out a questionnaire to ask how his constituents stand on major issues facing the Nation.

Calling for a consensus BEFORE the voting is a welcome change from the policy used in the past by a former representative from this district.

We hope that more of our public servants will use Congressman Pettis' approach.

The Upland-Ontario Branch of the American Association of University Women wishes to express its appreciation of the excellent publicity given our Annual Fellowship Bridge on Feb. 4.

Your fine coverage and photography, I am sure, played an important part in the success of the day. Again this year our Benefit Bridge was attended by more than 400 women, and thus we were able to attain our financial goal for an educational cause.

School Board candidates asked statements, facts

March 6, 1967

Dear Candidate:

It is customary that we run information on all candidates for school board positions in the interest of informing the public. Therefore, we are requesting that you cooperate with us in keeping the public informed by supplying us with the following information:

1. A wallet-sized, head and shoulders picture of yourself, black and white photo. (If you do not have a picture or cannot get one, we will take it for you at a charge of $3.00)

2. A biographical statement, limited to 200 words. You should include education, public service, family, vocation, etc.

3. A statement regarding your candidacy, limited to 200 words. You may choose your subject.

All of these will be run in the newspaper, side by side for each Board, and free of charge. The deadline for getting the information to us is noon Monday, March 20. This gives you two weekends to complete the statements. We will not accept your statements if they are in after the deadline, and all other information must be published in the form of advertising.

The Advertising Department may be reached by calling 982-1385 or 626-8815. Deadline for advertising copy each week is 5 p.m. Mondays for the current week of publication.

With some 50 candidates running for all the school board posts it is obvious that we need your cooperation, especially on the 200 word limits, and the deadlines.

Thank you for your cooperation in the interest of the public welfare.

Cordially,
